These are people who have stood up for what they believe in, even when it was unpopular or dangerous. They have spoken out against injustice, fought for equality, and worked to make the world a better place. Their stories are inspiring and motivating, and they remind us that we all have the power to make a difference.

Marlon Brando

Marlon Brando was one of the greatest actors of all time. He won two Academy Awards for his roles in On the Waterfront and The Godfather. Brando was also a passionate activist for civil rights and Native American rights. He used his celebrity to speak out against racism and injustice, and he worked to raise awareness of the plight of Native Americans.

Angelina Jolie

Angelina Jolie is one of the most famous actresses in the world. She has won an Academy Award for her role in Girl, Interrupted. Jolie is also a tireless humanitarian activist. She is a Special Envoy for the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees, and she works to raise awareness of the plight of refugees around the world.

Mahatma Gandhi

Mahatma Gandhi was one of the most influential leaders of the 20th century. He led India to independence from British rule, and he preached nonviolence and civil disobedience as a means of achieving social and political change. Gandhi's teachings have inspired millions of people around the world, and he is considered one of the greatest figures in history.

Nelson Mandela

Nelson Mandela was the first black president of South Africa. He spent 27 years in prison for his role in the fight against apartheid. Mandela was released from prison in 1990, and he went on to become a global symbol of peace and reconciliation. He was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1993.

These are just a few of the many actor and activists who have made a difference in the world. Their stories are inspiring and motivating, and they remind us that we all have the power to make a difference.
