Casting Movement is a book that tells the stories of people who have used hospitality to create social change. These are stories of people who have welcomed strangers into their homes, created safe spaces for marginalized communities, and used food to bring people together. Their stories are inspiring and they offer a powerful reminder of the power of hospitality to make a difference in the world.

The Welcome Table Initiative is a nonprofit organization that works to promote hospitality as a way to create social change. The organization provides training and resources to individuals and organizations that want to use hospitality to make a difference in their communities. The Welcome Table Initiative also works to raise awareness of the power of hospitality and to encourage people to practice hospitality in their daily lives.

Casting Movement is a powerful book that will inspire you to use hospitality to make a difference in the world. The stories in this book are a testament to the power of hospitality to transform lives and to create a more just and equitable world. If you are looking for a book that will inspire you to make a difference, then Casting Movement is the book for you.

Here are a few of the stories that are featured in Casting Movement:

- The story of a woman who started a dinner club for people who had been marginalized by society. The club became a safe space for people to connect with each other and to build community.
- The story of a man who used food to bring people together in a divided community. The man started a community garden that became a place where people of all different backgrounds could come together to grow food and build relationships.
- The story of a group of students who started a hospitality ministry at their university. The ministry provided hospitality to students who were new to the university and to students who were struggling financially.

These are just a few of the many stories that are featured in Casting Movement. Each story is a testament to the power of hospitality to make a difference in the world. If you are looking for a book that will inspire you to use hospitality to make a difference, then Casting Movement is the book for you.
