Synopsis

In the icy kingdom of Arendelle, where snow glistens and ice crystals dance in the air, lives a curious and adventurous salamander named Bruni. With her fiery spirit and unwavering determination, Bruni embarks on a heartwarming journey that will test her courage and forge unbreakable bonds of friendship.

As winter's grip tightens, Bruni finds herself lost and alone in the vast and unforgiving wilderness. But fate brings her together with a group of extraordinary companions: Elsa, the Snow Queen with a heart as cold as ice; Kristoff, the rugged mountain man with a loyal reindeer named Sven; and Anna, the fearless princess with a warm and compassionate spirit.

Together, they embark on a perilous quest to return Bruni to her home before the harsh winter claims her. Along the way, they navigate treacherous ice fields, encounter icy creatures, and overcome seemingly insurmountable challenges. But through it all, their friendship grows stronger, and Bruni's spirit shines brighter than ever.
