Here's a sample poem from the book:

**Grandpa's Hands****

Grandpa's hands are like a patchwork quilt, A tapestry of stories, sewn with love and care. Each wrinkle tells a tale, each scar a battle fought, Each callus a reminder of the work he's done.

They're the hands that held me when I was small, That taught me how to tie my shoes and ride a bike. They're the hands that wiped away my tears, And that always gave me strength when I was weak.

Grandpa's hands are like a roadmap of my life, A reminder of all the ways he's loved and cared for me. They're the hands that I'll always cherish, Even when he's gone.
