History

The history of the Wheel of Time is long and complex. The series is set in the Third Age, which began after the Breaking of the World. Geography

The Wheel of Time is set on a continent called Randland. Randland is divided into four major regions: the Westlands, the Aiel Waste, the Seanchan Empire, and the Land of the Shadow. The Westlands are home to the human nations of Andor, Cairhien, Tear, and Illian. The Aiel Waste is a vast desert inhabited by the nomadic Aiel people. The Seanchan Empire is a powerful nation located to the south of the Westlands. The Land of the Shadow is a dark and dangerous place where the Dark One resides.

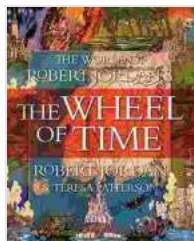

Magic

Magic is a powerful force in the Wheel of Time. It is wielded by the Aes Sedai, a group of women who are trained to channel the One Power. The One Power is a form of energy that can be used to create, destroy, and heal. The Aes Sedai are divided into seven Ajahs, each of which has its own focus and purpose. The Red Ajah, for example, is known for its focus on hunting and killing Darkfriends, while the White Ajah is known for its focus on healing.

Characters

The Wheel of Time features a large and diverse cast of characters. The main characters are Rand al'Thor, a young man who is destined to be the Dragon Reborn, and Egwene al'Vere, a young woman who is destined to be the Amyrlin Seat, the leader of the Aes Sedai.
