When You Adopt Starwhal is a heartwarming and humorous story about a young girl who adopts a baby starwhal and the adventures they share together. The book is perfect for children ages 4-8 and is sure to become a favorite bedtime story.

The story begins when the girl, named Lily, is visiting the beach with her parents. She sees a baby starwhal that has been separated from its pod. Lily's parents are hesitant to let her keep the starwhal, but she is determined to care for it.

Lily names the starwhal Starwhal and takes it home with her. She quickly learns that caring for a starwhal is not easy. Starwhal is a playful and curious creature, and he often gets into trouble. But Lily is patient and loving, and she always finds a way to help Starwhal.

As Lily and Starwhal grow together, they form a strong bond. They share many adventures together, and they learn a lot about each other. Lily learns that Starwhal is a kind and compassionate creature, and Starwhal learns that Lily is a brave and resourceful girl.

One day, Starwhal gets sick. Lily is heartbroken, but she does everything she can to help him. She takes him to the vet, and she nurses him back to health. Starwhal eventually recovers, and Lily is overjoyed.

When You Adopt Starwhal is a story about love, loss, and the power of friendship. It is a heartwarming and humorous story that will appeal to children of all ages.
